

reform and revaluation of the monetary system.
The strikes that virtually halted all communications and industrial production, however, have left the franc the most overvalued money in the West.
It has been crawling along for weeks at its floor level of 4.9740 francs to the dollar, the rate at which the government is obliged by international convention to buy in order to ward off a further decline.
Banks in Belgium, West Germany and Switzerland, though report a continuing flow of francs being changed into dollars, Swiss francs and other currencies despite the strict exchange controls imposed May 31 by the new finance minister, Maurice Couve de Murville.
The controls were tightened last Saturday after the discovery of widespread evasion. The original measure permitted residents of France to take 1,000 francs, roughly $200, with them every time they went abroad. This was reduced to 100 francs, or $20, in any 24-hour period. It was discovered some Frenchmen were going back and forth across the border taking 1,000 francs with them every time.
Couve de Murville was still counting the cost to the nation of the strikes which at their height idled an estimated 8 million to 10 million workers. He is not expected to make public a balance sheet until after Sunday's final round of elections.

Arnold Files as Delegate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Richard S. Arnold, an attorney from Texarkana who sought the 4th District congressional seat in 1966, filed Thursday as a candidate for a delegate's position in a proposed constitutional convention. He is seeking Position 1 in District 38 which is Miller County.
Charles D. Ray of Little Rock filed for Position 13 from District 22.

County and Municipal Employees (AFL-CIO).
Core told the high court that many of the strikers would return to work if they thought the strike was illegal.
"We're sitting on a powder keg right now," Core said, "and we don't know how long the fuse is... we do know it is lit."
Ward told Core that the court would consider an appeal when it meets July 15 but Core said, "I am convinced that we cannot last until then. I feel like we'll be back before the 15th with a disaster."

Justice J. Fred Jones said he "didn't see a thing in the world to keep the city from swallowing its dignity and asking the employees to come back."
In other developments Thursday, the striking employees began circulating petitions during the afternoon in an attempt to recall Mayor Jack Freeze and the seven city directors.
City Administrator Jack Shelley said nine newly hired employees reported to the sanitation department Thursday but refused to cross the picket lines. He said the hiring of replacement was not as much a problem as getting them to cross the picket lines.
Several contacts have been made with the city to contract for the garbage collection, Shelley said.

Refuses to Call Strike Illegal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three members of the Arkansas Supreme Court have refused to declare illegal a strike or picketing by about 190 of Fort Smith's nonuniformed workers.
The members of the court, which is in recess for the summer, deliberated about 20 minutes before issuing their brief opinion Thursday.

Justice Paul Ward said the primary issue appeared to be whether municipal employees had a right to strike and he said he didn't think such a far-reaching decision should be made by only three members of the seven-judge court.
The city had petitioned the court for temporary relief from a Sebastian Rancery Court decision earlier this week which supported the employees' in their right to picket.

The strike, which began June 19, involves members of the water, street, airport and sanitation departments.
Ben Core, attorney for the city, said the chancery court decision gave the strikers a "cloak of legality" and made almost impossible the city's task of replacing the striking workers.

Sam Sexton Jr., attorney for the employees, said he hoped the city would now follow the request of Chancellor Warren Kimbrough of Fort Smith and grant the employees an unconditional invitation to return to work.
Sexton later told Core he believed the strikers would return to their jobs if such an invitation were issued.
The strike began after the city told the employees it wouldn't recognize their demand for representation by the American Federation of State, administration in 1966. It had 12 votes in 1964. Nine went to Barry Goldwater, who got the nomination, two to Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton and his principal challenger, and Winthrop's to Nelson, whose bid for the nomination floundered after Goldwater beat him in the California primary.

After Goldwater clinched victory on the first ballot, the Arkansas delegation switched its vote to him.
Arkansas Republicans were solidly in Nixon's corner in 1960 when he won the nomination.

Democratic Appointments Almost Routine

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — In almost routine fashion, the Democratic State Committee elected Thursday a slate of uncontested delegates to the party's national convention.
Despite recent publicity about a possible bitter battle over delegates between Sen. J. William Fulbright and Jim Johnson, none developed as Johnson made no attempt to gain control of the delegation.
However, the differences between the two men came to the surface at the end of the meeting when Fulbright told newsmen that he believed the committee was "united again after a very disappointing experience in the last election."

Fulbright, who faces Johnson and two others in the primary race for the U.S. Senate seat, referred to the defeat of Johnson, the 1966 gubernatorial nominee, to Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.
"This is a response, I think, to the disastrous experience in the last election in the state," Fulbright said.

The senator said he assumed the leadership role in the selection of delegates because "this is the first time since Reconstruction days we have not had a Democratic governor."
Fulbright, however, was prepared to leave off any bid by Johnson to lead the delegation with supporters for former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, a third party presidential candidate. Johnson, however, had previously denied that any such effort would be made.
Fulbright had a list of delegates typed and ready for submission and it took the committee only about 20 minutes to handle the chore.

Gene Williams, a Johnson supporter, had 12 proxies at the meeting but he voted "pass" on all of them and for himself while Fulbright's list was receiving 43 vote. Williams was named to the delegation.
Included among the delegation that will be in Chicago for the convention which begins Aug. 26 were former Gov. Orval Faubus, former Gov. Sid McMath, Sens. John L. McClellan and Fulbright and U.S. Reps. Wilbur Mills, E. C. "Took" Gathings and David Pryor.

The committee adopted a resolution binding the delegation to vote as a unit after a majority decides which way it wants to go when it comes time to nominate a candidate for president.
Fulbright, asked why the meeting "went so well," told a newsmen, "The members seemed to be very much of one mind. The majority, 43 to 13, is a very satisfactory degree of agreement among them. I think they are united again after a very disappointing experience in the last election."
Following the meeting, about 80 Young Democrats, senior party members and Democratic candidates attended an invitational luncheon where the Young Democrats requested continued support from the senior members.
Don Trumbo of Fayetteville, state YD president, said the organization will not formally support any candidate in the governor's race but that members are being urged to support the candidate of their choice.

Senior members were asked to serve on five committees to help the YDs.
Asked to serve on a guidance committee were Joe Basore of Cherokee Village, H. L. Hembree of Fort Smith, Dan Felton of Marianna and Charles Murphy Jr. of El Dorado.
They were also asked to serve as a steering committee along with Ed Ball of Benton, Leon Cattlett of Little Rock, Ray Thornton of Sheridan and Trumbo.

Accused RFK Slayer Under Heavy Guard

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Intense security precautions are being taken at Los Angeles County Central Jail today for an appearance in a chapel-turned-courtroom by Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, charged with murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Today's court appearance, Sirhan's third since the June 5 assassination and his first in three weeks, was set up for a plea. But Russell E. Parsons, Sirhan's attorney, said he planned to ask a three-week continuance for time to give the case more study.
Parsons said he wanted to study the lengthy transcript of the county grand jury proceeding June 7 that led to Sirhan's indictment on one count of murder and five counts of assault with intent to commit murder.

The assault charges were filed on behalf of five bystanders wounded in the fusillade of bullets that felled the Democratic presidential aspirant.
The most seriously wounded of those five, Paul Schrade, western regional director for the United Auto Workers Union, was reported Thursday to be making satisfactory progress toward recovery.
Today's proceeding at the chapel, where Sirhan formally was charged with murder three weeks ago, originally had been scheduled for the Hall of Justice where he is to be tried.

Nixon Wants a Working V-president

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If he wins the presidency Richard M. Nixon says he'll want a working vice president, one who can take the lead in a major reorganization of the processes of government to make it "more responsive."

Nixon sketched plans Thursday for a blue-ribbon commission to undertake a broad revision of the way the federal government operates. It would, he said, be staffed with "the best management talent, the best government talent, and also the best academic talent from any disciplines."

Speaking in New York, the contender for the Republican presidential nomination said "the alienated" must be brought back into touch with their government.

The commission he envisions, he said, would seek ways of bringing government "closer to the people, of transferring functions to state and local governments, of creating new instrumentalities where appropriate to involve the people at the community level directly in the decisions that affect their own lives."

The job of overseeing this undertaking will be filled by the vice president, he said.
"And in making the decision on the vice presidential nominee," he said, "this is one of the major factors I will consider."

One of those who has expressed interest in sharing the GOP ticket with Nixon, Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts, formally endorsed Nixon Thursday and predicted he will win the nomination on the first ballot at the convention in Miami Beach.

Nixon was taken to task by his rival, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, for his criticism of President Johnson's Supreme Court nominations.

Nixon has sided with those Republicans who feel Johnson ought to have left the naming of a new chief justice and an associate justice for the next man entering the White House.

Rockefeller said Thursday in Sioux City, Iowa, he couldn't agree.
"The President, under the Constitution, has a responsibility to make the appointment," he said.

He said, however, that he could understand why the Republicans—hoping one of their own will enter the White House in January—would rather the changes were made next year.
"It's good politics—if you get away with it," he said.

Rockefeller's day included a visit to what is becoming a must stop for all politicians when they visit Huron, S.D., the drug-store founded by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's parents.

Grants for University
WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Science Foundation has approved grants of $53,717 for the University of Arkansas, $10,221 for State College of Arkansas and $2,000 for Arkansas State University, Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., announced Thursday.
The funds are to be applied to defraying direct costs of science activities and to help the schools maintain a strong academic base for American science.

BRIDE-ELECT GUEST OF MRS. BILL WATSON

An entertainment honoring Miss Dora Ann King, bride-elect of Don Charles Purdy of Texarkana, was given Tuesday, June 25 in the home of Mrs. Bill Watson. Assisting as hostesses for the evening party were Mesdames Jewel Moore, Jr., Horace Fuller, M. S. Bates, Ed Thrash, Hendrix Spraggins, Hubert Thrash, and Dean Murphy.

Mrs. Moore greeted the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line. There, they met the honoree attired in a mint green dress trimmed with a white collar and cuffs. Her corsage was of fleur d'amour. Mrs. Frank King, mother of the bride-elect, had yellow rosebuds for her corsage, and Mrs. J. A. Gunter, Miss King's grandmother, wore pink rosebuds.

Daisies centered the serving table where assorted refreshments were placed. Frosted pineapple punch was poured by Mrs. Homer Beyerley, aunt of the guest of honor, and Mrs. David Scott of Arkadelphia. Assisting in the dining room courtesies were Mrs. Bates and Misses Debbie Moore, Peggy King, and Barbie Watson.

Miss Mary Alice Caston registered about 100 guests during the appointed hours. The hostesses presented a gift of silver to the bride-elect.

Retirement Board Invests $124,300

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Employees Retirement System Board Wednesday made an initial investment of $124,300 to purchase common stocks during the next 12 months.

This is the first time the board has invested in common stocks in its 11-year history. The second special legislative session passed Act 9, making the purchase of common stocks legal for boards.

It was estimated that the stocks would produce about $5,310 interest on the $124,300 investment during the first year.

The State Teacher Retirement System recently authorized purchase of common stocks under Act 9.

HELEN HELP US!

THE WIFE OF THE PARTY

Dear Helen: The minute my wife and I arrive at a party, she's off like a rocket, flirting with every man in the room. It's like I suddenly disappeared.

I am not a jealous man, nor do I believe my wife would engage in hanky-panky, but she demands—and gets—male attention, while I'm content to stay with the less agile businessmen who don't buzz the ladies.

How can I get it across to her that my wife is being talked about? The other wives resent her, and come to think of it, I resent her actions too.—ON THE SIDELINES

Dear On: You can't change a born flirt by telling her. But you might hang in there with the ladies and show her how the shoe kicks on the other foot.

Remember now: Hanky, only—no panky.—H.

Dear Helen: You of course won't publicly agree, but I say a spot of adultery is good for certain marriages. Mine for instance. My wife began to treat me as a vendor machine. Push this button, the pay check comes out. Push that, the kids have another car. Work the right combination, and we play bridge. Etcetra.

Then I met Diane, to whom I was not a machine! My wife found out, and suddenly I was a man again to her. I think she was secretly a little proud of me, though she raised the roof. But how she treated me! It was like a second honeymoon, after she'd sent Diane packing. I don't recommend it for everyone, but adultery saved my marriage.—MARK

Dear Mark: Be that as it may, adultery is still NOT on my recommended list!—H.

Dear Helen: My mother has a habit of telling me before a birthday or Christmas or graduation to buy something for one of our youngsters, as a gift from her, because she doesn't know their sizes. She promises to pay me later. But she never comes through with the cash.

She is not without means. She hands out a five dollar bill to my brother's kids every time they sneeze.

Somewhat I can't bring myself to ask her outright for the money. What shall I do?—EMBARRASSED

Dear Emb: If a big thank-you letter from the kids doesn't make grandma kick through, then you'd better skip it. But next time she asks you to buy her gifts, tell her your children are at the age where they enjoy cash.—H.

Dear Helen: In our teen-agers' conversations, we hear the word

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — ABC's six special programs examining racism began Thursday night with an hour called "Bias and the Mass Media." It turned out to be mostly a bitter monologue by Harry Belafonte blaming the white community for all the troubles in this troubled land, and no one on the program gave him any argument.

Television, like newspapers and radio, has reflected the vital concern and anxiety of the nation by current events, and the series, "A Time for Americans," is part of it. Belafonte's tirade, more a reflection of his emotions than his information, shed heat but little light on the subject of race relations.

It was one of those round-table discussions, currently a TV epidemic. Participants were newscaster Frank Reynolds, who made no attempt to steer the discussion of the all-Negro panel; Belafonte, actress Lena Horne, psychiatrist Alvin Poussaint and Larry Neal, described as an essayist, poet and critic.

Miss Horne did manage to describe briefly her unhappy experiences 25 years ago in the Hollywood studios, and Dr. Poussaint slipped in a few measured observations about the "white-controlled media." But it was Belafonte's hour and he struck out in all directions and stepped on everyone else's lines.

He accused television of being concerned only with profits (the hour show's commercials consisted of promotions for ABC programs, indicating no sponsors had been turned up). He called for Negro writers, actors and directors in television; he offered his own analysis of the white man's psychology; he blamed every recent disorder on "some act of bestiality by the white world."

Reynolds show no inclination to control the speakers. But despite all the talk, no more was revealed than the well-known dissatisfaction and frustrations of some Negroes toward white America. And since this has been widely explored in the mass media, it added up to a static, frustrating hour of often misinformed angry talk.

Witt this column, Constant Viewer departs for a holiday from television. The space will be filled in the interim by guest columns written by friends in the industry. It will be resumed shortly from Hollywood, where next season's programs are now under construction.

NEW YORK (AP) — Feathers may be for the birds, but they are also for those with nest eggs plump enough for the likes of high fashion designers Donald Brooks and Pauline Trigere.

Although they do not flock together, the feathers of ostriches, cocks, pheasants and storks are due to flutter everywhere in a woman's wardrobe that may tickle her fancy.

This lesson is ornithology was a part of a week-long series of fall collection previews, American Designer Series, which ends today.

Cock feathers, beige, speckled or white ostrich fronds, sometimes glistening with jeweled drops were used as sleeves, skirts, ruffs, cuffs and borders. Some had bodices of matching velvet. Others glowed with iridescent sequins.

Instead of fur, Pauline Trigere preferred to line coats with marabou. The bristling boas by the mile bounced around other costumes. A gilet for bare bosoms was another ticklish fashion situation created by Trigere.

Just as Brooks used feathers as fabric, Trigere treated leather as if it were woven by the yard. From "it she fashioned bodices for gray flannel skirts which matched glove-like leather boots. Leather sleeves, leather for formal wear were more uses.

these hippies are consistent—they've got holes in their pants and holes in their heads."

"That's a cute one over there, Myrtle. Tell him we'll give him a dime if he holds still while I take his picture."

"The whole day was an utter waste. We demonstrated from morning to night, and the newspapers only gave up two paragraphs. What's nonviolence coming to, anyway?"

IN COSTUME, Barbra Streisand wears a plumed hat for her role as Dolly Levi in the movie version of "Hello, Dolly!" Much of the film is being shot in Garrison, N.Y., a Hudson River town that has been partly transformed into a 19th-century Yonkers.

like a normal human being." "Well, if you can't think up anything new to protest, neither can I. Maybe we'd better just call off the demonstration and see if we can't all crash a movie."

"I can't see why you think he's a traitor just because he's wearing sandals, Jason."

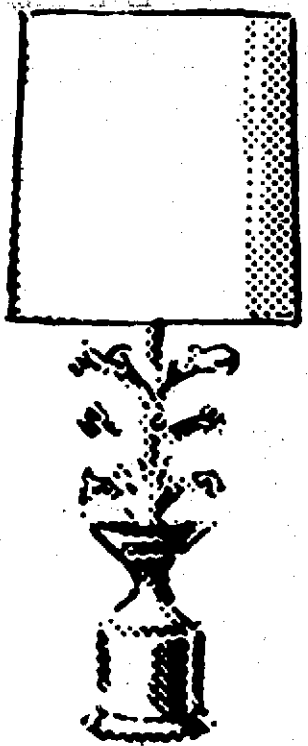

"What's the use of drafting him? He might wind up in our regiment."

"My mother doesn't mind me being a hippie, Jason. See, she even fixed me a box lunch to take to our protest meeting."

"When I was your age, son, I was demonstrating, too—but I was demonstrating vacuum cleaners for a living."

DON'T

LET DEATH TAKE THE DRIVER'S SEAT!

Let's face facts. Live drivers are safe drivers. Whether you think you're the world's greatest driver or not, there's always the other guy. The guy who runs the light, who drinks too much, who didn't see the sign. Over the holiday, there are always more of them. And the only way to avoid serious accidents is to be a careful driver. Keep a safe and steady hand on that wheel. If you don't, death can be in your driver's seat, too!

REMEMBER . . .

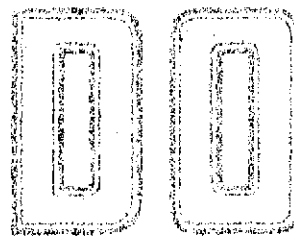

Cars can kill when You are Not careful. It's up to you whether you and your loved ones return home safely. The life you save may be your own child's.

to action of the Democratic Primary.

For Prosecuting Attorney loser play. He discarded a low spade on the third club lead. East was in with the queen and returned a diamond. The champion won that trick, played his ace and king of trumps and remaining high diamond.

Then he ruffed his last diamond in dummy, cashed dummy's ace of spades and ruffed a spade to get back to his hand. West overruffed and the champion had the distinction of being the only man to make only nine tricks at hearts.

We don't really approve of his line of play but it might well have been the winning one. Suppose for example that hearts broke 2-2 and diamonds 6-2. The players who led one trump and then tried to ruff a diamond would have seen that third diamond ruffed
by the opposition and gone down while the champion's play would have been the winner.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Simple Bridge Is Often Best

The club champion sat gloomily in a corner. Not only had he failed to win the weekly duplicate but he had actually made a below-average score.

He was moaning quietly and if you were to listen to his moans, you would hear something like, "Why couldn't I have played simple bridge!"

Today's hand shows one of his bottom scores. As anyone can see, four hearts makes easily. All declarer has to do is to ruff the third club, play ace-king and another diamond for dummy to ruff, draw trumps and concede a spade trick at the finish. Of course, declarer should play one heart before going after diamonds as a general mild safety precaution.

Now let's see what our champion did. First, look at the bidding. West's overcall had nothing to commend it but when West did overcall, it seems that East might well have either raised clubs or tried two spades. Obviously, East was familiar with West's overcalls and passed.

Anyway our champion made a sort of advanced loser-on-

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE

Joe Barham, Martha Barham,
Myrtle Verser and Mrs. George Dodds have filed a Petition with the City of Hope, requesting that a street be vacated and abandoned described as follows, to-wit:

Said street, being the West 323 feet of Dodds Avenue, as platted in said Dodds Addition to the City of Hope, Arkansas, is bounded on the North by part of Lot Forty-two (42) and by Lot Forty-three (43), on the West by U. S. Highway 67 East, on the South by Lots Forty-five (45) and Thirty-three (33) and by part of Lot Thirty-two (32) and on the East by the remaining portion of Dodds Avenue, all as more fully shown on the an-nexed certified copy of the plat of Dodds Addition to the City of Hope, Arkansas, as showing said Dodds Avenue,

A Public Hearing will be held on said Petition at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, July 9, 1968, in the Courtroom of the City Hall in the City of Hope, Arkansas. All interested parties should appear to be heard.

Crash Fatal at Dermott
DERMOTT, Ark. (AP)— One youth was killed and his brother critically injured in a one-vehicle crash on a Desha County road near Dermott.
Authorities identified the victim as David Wagner, 16, of Dermott. Officers said the steering linkage on the truck, driven by Jim Wagner, 26, also of Dermott, apparently locked, causing the accident.

INDEPENDENCE

... that good old American brand. A "way-of-life" that was signed into being, July 4th, nearly two hundred years ago. Ah, for that memorable day, when in the course of human events...

Liberty Was Born. Then let us, on this Independence Day, rededicate ourselves to this "hope-of-the-world-way" ... this way of life that guarantees for all men, Freedom, Equality and Justice. Give us an unyielding faith and supply us with genius that cannot err. Endow us with vital religious convictions to pilot our inherited ship of state. Let us always remember that the source of our freedom is The Book. Then Americans, don't forget to remember that, Music Was Born When Liberty Spoke. It is our Independence Day!!!

You Is The Church
The Church Is You

Strike Talk in Air by NFL Players

DETROIT (AP) — Strike talk was in the air today as National Football League players' and owners' representatives arrived in Detroit for a negotiating session.

The Associated Press learned Thursday night that NFL players have voted to strike unless owners grant demands for a higher minimum salary, improved pension plans and higher exhibition game pay.

All 640 NFL players were contacted in a telephone poll and a vast majority of them voted to authorize a strike, it was learned.

Detroit Lions owner William Clay Ford said today's meeting is a regular meeting between the players' association and owners' negotiating committees, not an emergency session as had been reported.

Time and place of the meeting could not be ascertained Thursday night.

Lions offensive lineman John Gordy, president of the association, and Philadelphia Eagles quarterback King Hill, vice president, were expected to lead the players' representatives.

Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell is the chief spokesman for the owners.

Ford said reports of the strike threat were "strictly a rumor."

"There is nothing to substantiate it," he said he spoke with Gordy Thursday night and Gordy made no mention of a strike.

"I know for a fact that the players have not been polled," Ford said. He declined to elaborate.

In Philadelphia, however, Eagles' linebacker Dave Lloyd said there had been an information telephone poll of Eagles players.

"We have been contacted, but we haven't had a group meeting to say whether we'd strike or not," Lloyd said.

Gordy was unavailable for comment in Detroit. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle was not in New York and also could not be reached for comment.

Must Score Quickly on Ken Rosewall

By GEOFFREY MILLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — If anyone is to stop Ken Rosewall from winning Wimbledon, he's got to do it by scoring points quickly.

Ask Charlie Pasarell, top-ranked U.S. amateur who came near to topping the great Australian in the second round Thursday.

"Unless you score the points quickly, you don't win it at all," he husky star from Santurce, Puerto Rico said.

"Once a rally gets going, he gets better and better with each stroke and eventually he puts me right through you."

Pasarell's booming service—some of the most powerful in the world—brought him close to glory on the center court. Finally Rosewall, after trailing 0-2 in the final set, won 7-9, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

After four days of intermittent rain, the organizers are some 140 matches behind schedule. But they've finished all the first round of the men's singles and all but seven of the second round.

Rod Laver moved into the third round Thursday with a hard-won 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 victory over No. 7 seeded Stan Smith of Los Angeles, Calif. Laver, who eliminated Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., in the first round, next faces another American, Marty Riessen, Davis Cup star from Evanston, Ill.

Baseball in Flurry of Player Deals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A flurry of player transactions occupied a major league baseball Thursday.

The Chicago Cubs were the busiest team. The Cubs, who had dropped six straight and 11 of their last 12, swapped outfielder Lou Johnson to Cleveland for outfielder Ernie Banks. The Cubs also acquired catcher Gene Clavin from Boston, called up

The Mets Are Making Like Champs Again

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Here come the Mets! Again! New York's grown-up expansion babies soared within a stride of hither-to unreachable heights Thursday night... for the fifth time this month... by trimming Houston 3-1 behind right-handers Don Cardwell and Ron Taylor.

The victory put the Mets' season record at 35-36. They never have reached the .500 level, after the first week, in any of their previous six National League seasons. But for the past two weeks it's been touch and go.

A four-game winning streak brought the Mets within a step of the elusive break-even point on June 14. The next day they rattled 16 hits off San Francisco's Juan Marichal... and lost 9-5.

Last Saturday, Gil Hodges' youngsters were knocking at the door again, but Los Angeles' Don Drysdale applied the brakes. Then, two shots at 500 in Cincinnati this week became a pair of one-run losses.

Tonight in the Astrodome, Nolan Ryan, a 21-year-old rookie with a 6-5 record and speed to burn, leads the uphill assault against last-place Houston and fireballer Larry Dierker, 7-10 on the season.

In Thursday's only other NL games, Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 6-5 on Zola Versalles' 11th-inning homer, ending Marichal's personal winning streak at 10 games, and Atlanta shaded Philadelphia 4-3 under the lights as brothers Hank and Tommie Aaron combined to drive in three runs.

In the American League, Boston drubbed Cleveland 9-3 and Minnesota zipped Baltimore 2-0 in a game halted by rain after five innings. The other clubs had the day off.

Cardwell, who went into the Houston game with six straight setbacks and a 1-8 record, blanked the Astros for seven innings before leaving under fire in the eighth. With one run in, Taylor came out of the bullpen and got the third out, stranding two base runners, then retired the Astros in order in the ninth.

Two of Ed Charles' three hits figured in the New York scoring. Singles by Cleon Jones and Charles, a late throw to the plate on Jerry Grote's grounder, a balk by losing pitcher Denny Lemaster and Jerry Buchek's sacrifice fly sent two runs across in the seventh. Singles by Charles, Grote and Don Bosch produced an insurance run in the ninth.

Versalles' leadoff homer off Marichal in the 11th ruined the Giant ace's bid for his 15th victory and dropped San Francisco into third place, one-half game behind Atlanta and seven back of the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals.

Willie McCovey drove in four runs with his 19th and 20th homers, staking Marichal to an early 5-2 lead. The Dodgers rebounded on Len Gabrielson's two-run homer in the fifth and tied it on pinch hitter Ken Boyer's run-scoring single in the sixth.

Four LA relievers then battled Marichal, 14-3, to a standoff until Versalles' second homer broke the tie.

Hank Aaron drilled his 14th homer... and 495th of his career... and brother Tommie delivered two runs with a pair of singles, helping the Braves take a 4-2 lead into the ninth.

But winner Pat Jarvis needed relief help from Cecil Upshaw, who retired Rich Allen on a sharp grounder to third baseman Marty Martinez for the final out after pinch hitter Bill White's RBI single had closed the gap.

Lindgren Has Changed Fairs Thinking

By LARRY ELDRIDGE
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — New Faces of 1968 could well be the name for the youthful and relatively inexperienced pitching corps which will represent the American League in the All-Star game at Houston July 9.

Not a single repeater from 1967 was on the seven-man staff named Thursday by Manager Dick Williams. Four were chosen for the first time in their careers, while the other three—Denny McLain of Detroit, Sam McDowell of Cleveland and Mel Stottlemyre of New York—have hurled in just one previous classic each.

The quartet of newcomers includes Jose Santiago of Williams' own defending champion Boston Red Sox, Luis Tiant of Cleveland, Tommy John of Chicago and John Odom of Cleveland.

Santiago, 27, is the oldest member of the staff. Odom, who turned 23 last month, is the youngest.

McLain, the league's big winner with a 13-2 record, was the starting pitcher the only other time he was selected in 1966, hurling three perfect innings.

McDowell, 26, pitched two innings in the 1965 game, giving up one run in taking the 6-5 loss. The fireballing left-hander also was selected in 1966, but had arm trouble and was replaced on the squad by teammate Sonny Siebert.

The 1968 starting team except for the pitcher, chosen by vote of the players and announced earlier, includes catcher Bill Freehan, Detroit; first baseman Harmon Killebrew, Minnesota; second baseman Rod Carew, Minnesota; third baseman Brooks Robinson, Baltimore; shortstop Jim Fregosi, California; and outfielders Carl Yastrzemski, Boston, Frank Howard, Washington, and Willie Horton, Detroit.

The rest of the squad will be selected by Williams and named later.

pitcher Bill Stoneman from Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League and sent pitcher Chuck Hartenstein and first baseman John Boeckella to Tacoma, in addition to dropping Oliver, the Red Sox claimed veteran left-hander Juan Pizarro from Pittsburgh. The Pirates used the roster room created by Pizarro's departure to add reliever Bill Henry from San Francisco.

The New York Yankees, troubled by an unreliable bullpen, purchased veteran Thad Lillito, son,

Patriots Try to Sign Byrd
BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots focused all-out efforts today on signing North Carolina State's Dennis Byrd, a defensive lineman plucked by the American Football Club in the first round of the pro draft.

The signing of defensive back Jim Smithberger of Notre Dame Thursday left Byrd as the Patriots' only major 1968 draft choice outside the fold.

Unearned Runs Win for Boston

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Sam McDowell was fine as long as he was throwing strikes. It was only when he let the Red Sox hit the ball that he got in trouble.

McDowell, selected as a member of the American League All-Star pitching staff earlier in the day, struck out the side in the first inning against Boston Thursday night. But between strikeouts the Red Sox scored six unearned runs on their way to a 9-3 romp over Cleveland.

In the only other American League game played, Minnesota blanked Baltimore 2-0 in a game ended by rain after five innings.

In the National League, New York topped Houston 3-1, Atlanta edged Philadelphia 4-3 and Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 6-5 in 11 innings.

Joe Foy opened the Red Sox first against McDowell with a bloop single and raced to third when Larry Brown threw wild on Jerry Adair's grounder. McDowell struck out Carl Yastrzemski but Ken Harrelson stroked the first of his three hits, scoring Foy.

Brown's second error of the inning gave Boston another run.

Tony Jacklin Appears in the Groove

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Tony Jacklin appears to be in the groove again and he owes it all to an unintentional layoff.

The young British golfer failed to make the cut in last week's Canadian Open and did not qualify for the U.S. Open two weeks ago.

"I was mentally exhausted. I overplayed myself. I only had two weeks off in the last six months," the 23-year-old pro said Thursday after taking a three-stroke lead in the $110,000 Cleveland Open with a torrid five-under-par 66.

Jacklin figures only two rounds of golf in the last two weeks are putting him in stride again.

Custly winds and temperatures in the 60s plagued most of the 144 golfers on the 6,742-yard Lakewood Country Club course but hardly bothered the popular Englishman.

Chasing Jacklin were a quartet of pros at 69. They were Roberto De Vicenzo of Argentina, Hideyo Sugimoto of Tokyo, Dave Stockton and Wayne Yates.

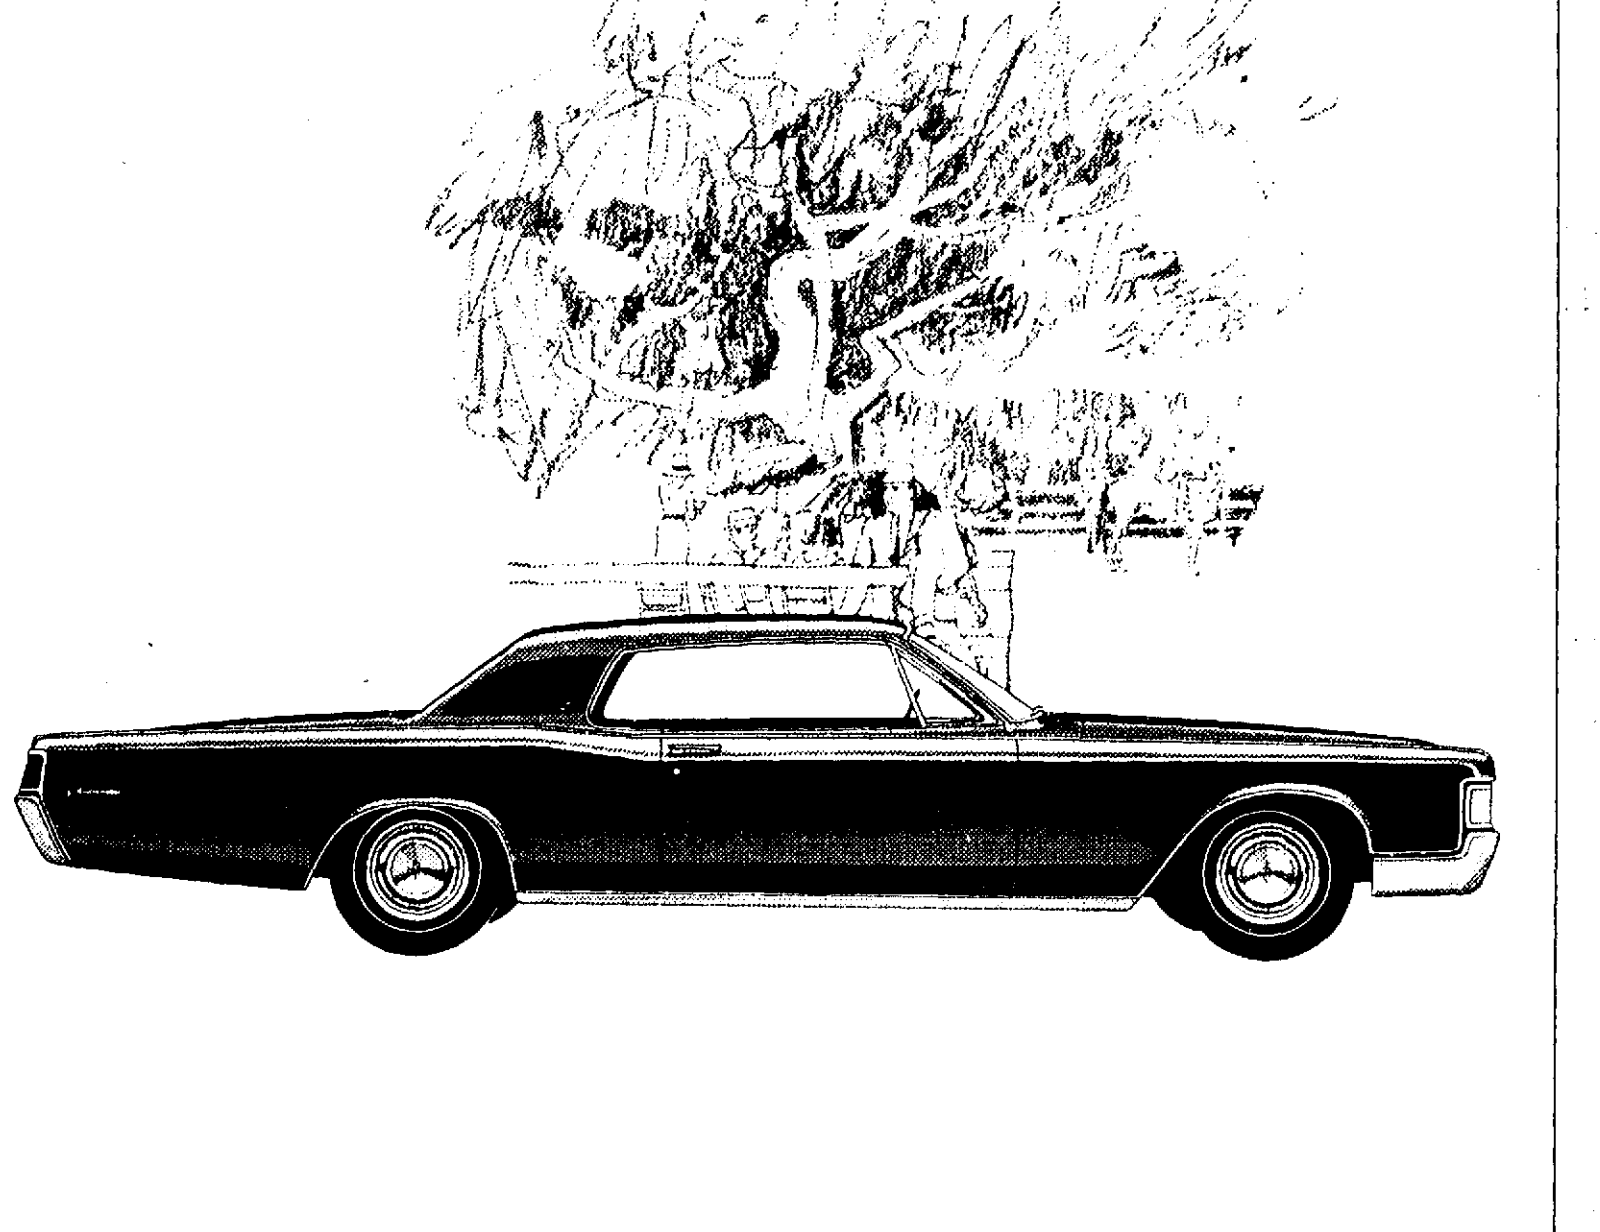

U.S. Open champ Lee Trevino posted a one-over 72 and complained about poor putting.

All-time leading money-winner Arnold Palmer, who shot a fine 67 in Wednesday's pro-amateur, soared to a 75 and was in danger of missing the cut.

Perfectionist's delight

Perfection is an elusive goal, yet the makers of Lincoln Continental have pledged themselves to it year after year. And they come closer to realizing their goal than any other fine-car maker. But then, they have a slight edge on the field. Each year, Continental engineers and designers start with the finest car in America. They improve it. They refine it. They subject it to over 2000 manufacturing checks. Then test it again with a rigorous twelve-mile road test. In fact, they are as meticulous about testing each Continental as they are about building it. This meticulous attention to even the most minute detail has led the most discerning of fine-car connoisseurs to acclaim Continental as the definitive car in its field. Lincoln Continental for 1968 more than ever lives up to its reputation as the finest car made in America. Everywhere you look, from the gracefully classic Continental design to the luxurious beauty of the interiors, you detect the craftsman's hand.

Allow us to show you how nearly perfect a motorcar can be. Let us arrange a personal demonstration for you, during which you may become acquainted with the pleasure and prestige awaiting you in the 1968 Lincoln Continental.

Gun Control Bill Suffers a Setback

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The drive for stronger gun control laws, already beset by delays and apparent adverse public reaction, has suffered what may be a crippling setback.

The latest blow was a 7-5 vote by the Senate Judiciary Committee Thursday to delay further consideration of weapons control bills until July 9.

"Those concerned about the passage of responsible firearms legislation had better realize that this was a real defeat," Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., said.

The outlook for new legislation urged by President Johnson had been dimmed previously by a slowdown in the House and by a sharp reversal in an initial flood of mail favoring strong gun controls after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. Congress had seemed moving toward speedy action on a measure to prohibit interstate mail order sales of all firearms and ammunition and to ban their over-the-counter sale to nonresidents of a state.

This would have extended to rifles and shotguns the restrictions provided for pistol sales in the recently enacted crime control bill.

But the first of this week, Johnson also asked Congress for laws requiring the national registration of all guns and the licensing of their owners.

Immediately after, congressmen reported their mail had reversed itself from favoring stiffer control laws and was running heavily against the proposals, particularly those requiring registration. This came after the National Rifle Association, main opponent of controls, called for a letter campaign against the bills.

In an apparent move to keep the registration controversy from affecting the mail order ban extension, Johnson asked in his message that the registration proposals not delay enactment of the bills already before Congress.

But his plea didn't seem to have any effect Thursday.

When the Senate committee met, Sen. Tydings proposed an amendment adding the registration and licensing provisions to the mail order bill, which was approved by the House Judiciary Committee last week.

After extended closed-door debate on Tydings' amendment, Sen. Quentin N. Burdick, D-N.D., moved to postpone further consideration of the legislation until July 9 and his suggestion was adopted, 7 to 5.

Listed as voting for the motion to postpone action were Burdick and Sens. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.; Hiram L. Fong, R-Hawaii; Roman L. Hruska, R-Nebr.; Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C.; Edward V. Long, D-Mo.; and James O. Eastland, D-Miss., the committee chairman. Those voting against were listed as Tydings and Sens. Thomas Dodd, D-Conn.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Birch Bayh, D-Ind.; and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.

Tydings said three absent senators "might have been able to help" if present when the vote was taken. He said they were Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; and Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

Also absent at the time of the vote was Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., who was presiding over an appropriations subcommittee hearing.

French Nation Is Now Facing the Threat of Galloping Inflation

Rockefeller Will Visit in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, challenging Richard M. Nixon for the Republican presidential nomination, will fly into Arkansas late today courting national convention votes.

Rockefeller got only one Arkansas vote at the 1964 GOP convention in San Francisco, that from his brother, Winthrop Rockefeller, now Arkansas' governor.

Nelson Rockefeller is scheduled to arrive in Little Rock at 5:45 p.m. on a chartered jet which will also carry his personal staff, about 25 newsmen assigned to his campaign and about 20 Secret Service agents.

Winthrop Rockefeller will meet his brother at the airport. They will drive to the Marion Hotel for a 6:15 p.m. news conference, then Rockefeller will meet members of the Republican State Committee at a reception.

The committee will select 10 Republican National Convention delegates in a meeting scheduled to start at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. Nelson Rockefeller, who has an engagement at HemisFair in San Antonio, Tex., Saturday, is scheduled to fly out of Little Rock about an hour before the meeting starts.

Arkansas gets 18 GOP convention votes this year because the state elected a Republican PARIS (AP) — In the wake of its national convulsion, France faces the threat of galloping inflation that may force devaluation of its money and put a strain on the entire international monetary system.

An inflationary rise of prices raises the threat of another round of social strife in the autumn.

The French crisis will probably have mixed results on the international level. Salary raises and increased social benefits handed out to settle the three-week wave of strikes across France are expected to increase purchasing power by some $4 billion this year and nearly $10 billion next year. This could trigger an import explosion that should immediately benefit France's Common Market partners, especially West Germany.

There is little likelihood of immediate benefit either to American or British exporters. But the flood of exports to France could easily create a demand inflation in West Germany and other Common Market countries which would be to the advantage in the long run to Americans and British.

With greater unencumbered financial reserves that the United States, the French will not face a need to cut the franc's value until next year, experts say.

The government has already served notice it will fight to save the franc with all of the nation's considerable resources. And government informants say the regime will only consider devaluation as part of a broad

Surprised at Opposition to Appointment

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Opponents of President Johnson's naming a new chief justice are claiming increasing support in both parties and the offensive seems to have taken the Senate Democratic leadership by surprise.

The opposition, centered so far largely on a petition being circulated by Senate Republicans, is "a little more emphatic than I anticipated it would be," Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Thursday night.

"I don't know what these people can do," commented Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee which will consider Johnson's appointments of Abe Fortas as chief justice of the Supreme Court and Homer Thornberry as an associate justice.

Fortas would replace the retiring Earl Warren with Thornberry stepping up from the U.S. Court of Appeals in Austin, Tex., to fill the vacancy created by Fortas' elevation.

Mansfield and Eastland commented in the wake of two major developments:

—Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., circulator of the petition, claimed support of most of his GOP colleagues and some Democrats and said "I really think the nominations can be blocked."

—A question was raised in the Judiciary Committee about whether a vacancy really exists on the court since President Johnson said, when announcing Warren's retirement, it was "subject to the appointment of a qualified successor."

The committee called Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to testify on the question July 11. But the Justice Department hastened to cite what it called numerous precedents for approving court appointees before a predecessor actually stepped out.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who said he won't sign the Griffin petition but has not taken a public stance on the nominations, said "It is a fine question. If no vacancy exists there is nothing to fill."

There are 18 signatures on the petition which specifically opposes President Johnson, as an outgoing president, making court appointees that will exert influence for years. This is half the Senate's GOP members, but Griffin forces say some senators are on the fence and others are still considering signing.

Mansfield, answering questions from United Nations correspondents on a speechmaking trip to New York, raised the possibility that Warren could be forced to stay on indefinitely as chief justice if the nomination is blocked.

"There's always that very strong possibility if an impasse should develop in the Senate," he said.

Referring to the petition signers, Eastland commented in Washington "Will they vote against cloture (the rule to shut off prolonged debate)? Will they filibuster? I don't know. I just don't know."

Controversial Rulings Are Defended by Chief Justice Earl Warren

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren says he would like the 15 "Warren years" of the U.S. Supreme Court recorded "as an honest effort to meet the problems of our day."

The 77-year-old jurist reflected on his term as chief justice during an interview on radio and television Thursday and commented:

—Criticism and dissent are healthy for the court and the entire system of American government. "I wouldn't want to take the Supreme Court out of controversy." But he said some attacks on the court have been "outlandish."

—Critics of the Warren Commission investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy have failed to develop facts "contrary to the findings of the commission."

—Controversial civil rights issues have come to the court; the court has not deliberately sought them out.

—He is not personally bothered by billboards put up in some parts of the country during the past several years calling for his impeachment. "I learned to accept criticism as well as praise."

Warren was interviewed by reporters for radio station KFBK and television station KQVR during a brief visit Thursday to Sacramento, where Warren served 10 years as the state's Republican governor before being appointed chief justice by President Eisenhower.

Warren rejected the argument of some court critics that it has injected itself into civil rights controversies.

"There are a great many people who are of the opinion that if the Supreme Court doesn't like

Petition Against Gun Control

HENSLEY, Ark. (AP) — Frank Turney, who says he's "just trying to see what one man can do," has seen a petition campaign to oppose gun control legislation spread to surrounding cities and even into Missouri.

The 25-year-old Hensley resident, who works in Little Rock, said he began with one petition but that they have spread to Little Rock, Conway, Benton, Sheridan, Camden, Perryville, Morrilton and Lonoke. He also said one man had taken some petitions home with him to Missouri.

The petition opposes further gun control legislation and "recommends stiffer judicial action of criminal violations of the law."

Turney, who says he had 799 signatures on petitions, hopes to gather 1,500 signatures before he mails the petitions to Arkansas' congressional delegation this weekend.

Enemy Sees Big Defeat in Evacuation

By STEPHENS BROENING
PARIS (AP) — The spokesman for North Vietnam's peace talks delegation said today American evacuation of Khe Sanh amounted to "a grave defeat for the United States."

Nguyen Thanh Le, the delegation press officer, said the United States had been "forced to retreat" from the base just below the demilitarized zone in South Vietnam.

He said the U.S. Military Command's explanation that the base was no longer essential made him think of the fable of the fox and the grapes. Unable to reach a bunch of grapes, the fox went away saying "they were sour anyway."

If there was any hope that the U.S. evacuation of the base was part of an over-all plan of de-escalation acceptable to North Vietnam, Le quickly scotched this.

"The retreat constitutes a grave defeat for the United States, tactically as well as strategically," he told a news conference.

"As long as the United States insists on pursuing its war of aggression, the United States will not avoid defeat, whatever tactics are used."

"The U.S. military commanders once decided to defend the base at all costs. They are now forced to retreat from the base," he said.

Le said North Vietnam wants peace, but "Peace goes hand in hand with independence, and we reject a pax Americana."

Long Holidays Bill Signed by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he will sign the bill making four national holidays fall always on Mondays, but the resulting long weekends won't start until 1971.

The new law will change the dates for Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Veterans Day, and give Columbus Day status as a national holiday.

Washington's Birthday will fall on the third Monday in February, Memorial Day on the last Monday in May, Columbus Day on the second Monday in October and Veterans Day on the fourth Monday in October.

The bill applies only to federal employees and the District of Columbia. But by Jan. 1, 1971, when the law takes effect, most states are expected to have decided to go along with the new holiday lineup, which, with Labor Day, will produce five three-day weekends a year.

"This is the greatest thing that has happened to the travel industry since the invention of the automobile," said Clarence A. Arata, president of the National Association of Travel Organizations.

Travel agencies and the business community were the main champions of the legislation, which was first introduced in Congress more than 10 years ago.

Maddox Says Phooey to Whole Crowd

Atlanta attorney James H. Moore initiated the campaign phooey buttons, phooey bumper stickers and possibly a phooey flagpole.

He sent the first official communication but it missed the mark. It read: "Phooey." Moore said he conceived the idea at lunch with friends one day.

"We were discussing how obnoxious Lester was and what name he was giving the state," Moore said. "We thought how great it would be if millions of Georgians would just say phooey on him."

Saigon Is Placed on Full Alert

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong infiltrators were reported pushing in toward Saigon today, and Vietnamese forces in the capital were placed on full alert to meet a possible new major attack.

All leaves were canceled in the Saigon military district. Supply and administrative clerks were confined to quarters and told to be ready to fight.

Senior U.S. officers said no alert was necessary for American troops. "We're as fully alert all the time as we can be," said one.

South Vietnamese intelligence sources said enemy infiltration in the capital military district has been stepped up within the past 48 hours.

At military headquarters inside Saigon, the nerve center for combat operations around the capital, defenses were bolstered with additional machine guns and sandbags.

Such infiltration by the Viet Cong has always been followed by an attack in the past. This time they are expected to hit the same areas they did during the offensives in February and May—Cholon, the Chinese quarter in the southwest part of the city, and Gia Dinh, a suburb north of the city.

Intelligence sources have reported that captured documents and prisoner interrogations indicate the Communist command is planning a full-scale attack on the capital late this month or early in July.

The aim, U.S. officers say, is to strengthen Hanoi's bargaining position at the peace negotiations in Paris.

Informants estimate that 12,500 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops are within a 25-mile radius of Saigon.

The U.S. Command has 6,000 troops on the edges of Saigon, while 4,000 South Vietnamese are stationed inside the city.

To blunt the threatened attack, about 10,000 allied soldiers have been patrolling intensively within a 15-mile arc of Saigon. The Saigon area also has been given top priority for air strikes by B-52 bombers in a campaign to smash infiltration and supply corridors from rear staging bases. An average of 50 B-52s have been hitting enemy positions each day.

Despite the massive air and ground effort, U.S. officers concede that the enemy will be able to slip through defensive lines. Because of the terrain, it is frequently difficult to pinpoint the enemy positions. In adjoining Hau Nghia Province, for example, they are said to be concealed in sugar cane fields, canals and swamps.

Over North Vietnam, American pilots flew 138 missions Thursday in the continuing effort to curtail the flow of war supplies and troops into the South. Pilots reported destroying or damaging 22 supply barges, 13 trucks and 7 warehouses.

Maddox Says Phooey to Whole Crowd

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Lester Maddox says "phooey" on the whole crowd of phooeygrammers.

The governor responded to a campaign based on his favorite expletive. Phooeygrams bear one word, "Phooey," plus the name of the sender.

Atlanta attorney James H. Moore initiated the campaign phooey buttons, phooey bumper stickers and possibly a phooey flagpole.

He sent the first official communication but it missed the mark. It read: "Phooey." Moore said he conceived the idea at lunch with friends one day.

"We were discussing how obnoxious Lester was and what name he was giving the state," Moore said. "We thought how great it would be if millions of Georgians would just say phooey on him."
